

Man/Woman of the Year Service Awards - 2021

OBJECTIVE

To recognize those individuals who make significant contributions to their club or organization and/or community.

ELIGIBILITY

Any club or organization in good standing as a member of the Inter-Service Club Council of Arlington (ISCC) is eligible to nominate a service club/organization member who has not previously received this award.

Please strive to have your nominee attend the ISCC Annual Meeting that will be held on Wednesday, November 17, 2021 at the Washington Golf & Country Club, 3017 N. Glebe Road, Arlington.

NOMINATIONS

Content should include the following:

- A cover page with the name of nominee; the year for which nominated; the name of club/organization making the nomination; and the name, title, and phone or e-mail of person preparing the nomination.
- An introduction describing the nominee's background and participation in the nominating club/organization. Participation in other organizations and/or community activities, and awards should be mentioned.
- Emphasis should be placed on services rendered by the nominee (either as an individual or as a member of a group) which have contributed to community needs, produced visible results, and/or have implications for future actions which improve or enrich life for ANY segment of the community.
- Essay should be 500 words or less.

The complete nomination must be sent on or before Wednesday, November 3, 2021.
